

September 2022

We look forward to seeing you at our next concert.

On Saturday 1st October at Chandler's Ford Methodist Church, Southampton Concert Wind Band will be sharing the stage with the Band of the Hampshire Constabulary.

It promises to be a marvellous concert with a programme of music rich in variety. SCWB's guests have a long history stretching back over 110 years and in recent years have performed in Europe and also, in 2010, visited the Caribbean island of St Lucia to celebrate the 31st anniversary of their Independence.

The focal point of the Band of the Hampshire Constabulary's performance will be Queen Forever, a wonderful compilation of some of Freddie Mercury's and Queen's best-known melodies. SCWB will open the concert with John Williams' stirring Midway March and will also perform Disney Festival, a terrific medley of music featured in Disney films over the decades.

You will have the chance to hear each band showing off their musical talents before they combine for a spectacular finale that includes Eric Whitacre's lyrical The Seal Lullaby and Ron Goodwin's stirring march, Aces High.

Don't miss this chance to hear some fine wind band music performed by these two local ensembles. The concert starts at 7.30pm – see you then!

Calum Gray, SCWB Music Director
